Italy - History culture, art: every city reflects the intricate history that has always made Italy so special for visitors. This peninsula, with a deep blue sea on three sides, boasts a rich gastronomic tradition, a great variety of landscapes and a warm hospitality that is common to this "people of saints, poets and navigators", the Italians, from north to south

Greece - The cradle of one of the most important civilisations in history, Greece can boast some of the most stunning archaeological sites in the world. And the boundary between history and myth is blurred: in Greece, every place has a story to tell about its own mythical origins, brought about by the whimsical wish of those gods who live in the Greek mountains

Turkey - Traditionally considered the westernmost outreach of the Asian continent, Turkey is a hospitable, welcoming and seductive country, offering a thousand different facets and moods, from the golden sandy beaches to the lively and colourful bazaars. Stupendous minarets evoke stories of harems and sultans, while archaeological treasures tell of great ancient civilisations that were born here

Croatia - In Croatia the influence of the Republic of Venice can be felt everywhere, in the landscapes, monuments and cultural heritage left by the Venetians that the subsequent Turkish domination did not destroy. The beauty of the countryside combines with the rich artistic heritage of many of the cities, some of which are protected by UNESCO, such as the historical centre of Trogir or beautiful Dubrovnik.
